

1 Seattle Aquarium

Our favorite spots are Window on Washington Waters and Caring Cove, a play space where kids can learn about animal care.

START!

Pike Place Market pigs

The Secret Garden (in Pike Place Market)

Argosy Cruises

Pier 62

4 Aquarium Café for gelato

The Seattle Aquarium has Nutty Squirrel Gelato now! Creamy and flavorful, it's the best sweet treat on the waterfront. They even have vegan options.

P.S. The Aquarium allows same-day reentry. Make sure to get a hand stamp before you head out!

THE JOHNSON FAMILY'S DAY AT THE WATERFRONT

A joyous and tight-knit family

Follow along as we make it a day on the Seattle Waterfront. It's time for some family fun!

@WeAreTheJohnsonFamily

@falesha11
@romejohns

2 Lunchtime: Ivar's Fish Bar

The food here is a hit for both parents and kids every time. You can't go wrong with a fresh basket of fish and chips.

Carousel (near the Great Wheel)

Ferry ride to and from Bainbridge Island

Pioneer Square Habitat Beach

Magic Mouse Toys

3 The Great Wheel

This Seattle classic is known for its dazzling views of Elliott Bay. Plus, there's stroller parking.

