

START!

1 Honest Biscuits

Let's fuel up before we start our adventure. Honest Biscuits is a must for breakfast, with delicious biscuits made fresh with local ingredients. My go-to order is a When Pigs Fly sandwich and a golden chai.

Candied salmon/salmon jerky at Totem Smokehouse in Pike Place Market

Seattle waterfront sea wall

Bainbridge Island Ferry (potential orca spotting)

Beecher's Handmade Cheese

Head north to Ballard Locks

KENDY'S DAY AT THE WATERFRONT

Passionate marine conservationist

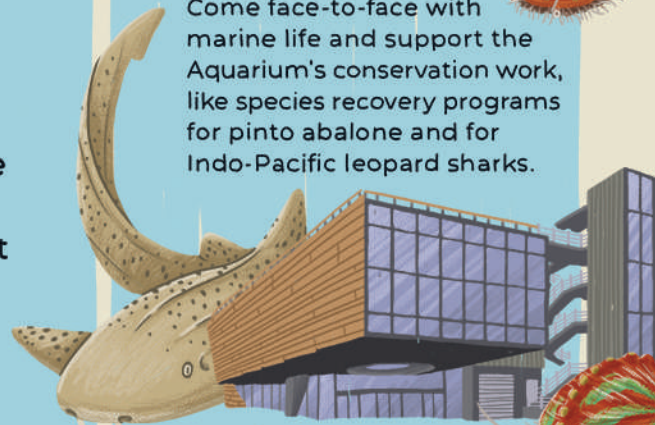

Follow along as we make it a day on the Seattle Waterfront. Let's connect with some marine life!

2 Seattle Aquarium

Come face-to-face with marine life and support the Aquarium's conservation work, like species recovery programs for pinto abalone and for Indo-Pacific leopard sharks.

(Learn more about these sharks in the new Ocean Pavilion!)

4 Bookstore

Pike Place Market has so many options for finding great reads on marine science, from Lionheart Bookstore to BLMF Literary Salon to Left Bank Books Collective.

Eighth Generation (also available in the Aquarium gift shop)

Pioneer Square Habitat Beach

3 Pocket Beach

From the Aquarium, head north along the waterfront to check out this cool urban tide pooling spot. Keep an eye out for invertebrates, jellies, seals and even seagulls munching on sea stars!
